ADDRESS Adopted by the American Party, AT ITS ANNUAL MEETING, June, 1857.

ADDRESS. Called by the passing away of another year to meet the members of the American party in National Council, the occasion demands a reaffirma-tion of our opinions. We are ready to-day as aforetime to give a reason for the faith that is in us, and as ready to-day as ever before to stand fast by our vows of devotion to our whole country. Neither dismayed by defeat, nor disheart-ened by opposition—neither discouraged by the past, nor without hope for the future—we meet together both to counsel one with another, and to show to the people of the United States by our presence and our numbers here in opcu conven tion that as a party we are hopeful and determined as to our future course of action.

cd as to our future course of action.

The dominant party at the North and the dominant party at the South, by appeals made to sections of country and the passions of the day, are temporarily successful. But a temporary triumph is no evidence of permauent success. Nor does a victory secured by passion give evidence of a true attachment to principle. A true soldier will never be disheartened in sustaining a good cause the fitness of their candidate acted upon the same convictions of public duty, the result would have been far different. At the North, tens of thousands voted for Mr. Fremont upon the plea that there was no chance for Mr. Fillmore, while tens of thousands voted for Mr. Buchauan at the South upon the plea that a vote for Mr. Fillmore would secure the election of the candidate of the would secure the election of the candidate of the miscalled Republican party. It was a cruel and uncalled for sacrifice of principle upon the altar of expediency, and one of those sacrifices of principle which, if persisted iu, in private life, as is sometimes the case, in the consideration of subjects of great public moment, would result in the comment of the com common disaster. When patriotism becomes the rule of action and a true love of country points out the path of duty, nothing can excuse yielding up of that which is right for that which is merely expedient.

We do not, however seek to recall anything in the past calculated to wound the feelings of those who were tempted in a moment of despon dency or thoughtlessness to forget their obliga tions to their country or their associates in princi

Thousands who left our ranks in November drawn away by the temporary expedients and passions of the hour, have returned to the fold of the American party. They have been taught in the bitter school of experience that the word of promise may be made to the ear and broken to the hope. Where there was a pledge to secure, and the power to effect a pure ballot-box—the want of which is one of the great evils of the the good men of all parties—there has been either a criminal indifference to the evil itself or a bold paarticipation in that wrong. So in the promises made at the North to secure a pure franchise through the agency of a registry law where all could see and know who, under the constitution and by the laws, were entitled to

In no instance that we can recall to mind have either of the two great organizations opposed the American party endeavored to secure those wholesome reforms which are essential either to an inteligent or honest exercise of the rights of franchise. Even where an attempt has been Union? made, as in New York, to secure a practical re-form under the naturalization laws, so that while the change would not extend the five years' resi-dence previous to naturalization provided by the laws of the United States, it would, nevertheless, secure a small portion of this limited residence before the alien was alowed to vote, the attempt has failed, by the combined oppositiou of both the Democratic and Republican parties, who not unfrequently work together at the North to destroy the American organization. And while there has been a neglect to maiutain a pure fran chise for white voters, and an open and earnest opposition to all reforms, proposing simply reme-dial measures for admitted great public evils, there has also been enacted in New York a successful measure looking to such an amendmen of the Constitution as would seeure a general sys-tem of suffrage to the negroes of the State. Thus, in one part of the Union a State Constitution is opened to sustain the question of negro suffrage, while in another part of the Union the alien has had conferred upon him privileges wholly un known to the native-born citizen. To day a foreign pauper or a foreign criminal, driven or banished from the pest or prison honses of Europe, is made in all things, and regardless of his residence in the country, an equal with the citizen whose service has been life-long, patriotic, and useful in the land of his birth To-morrow, again, States in another sec all men too, who wish to reform those gross tion of the country become revolutionary in their plans of opposition to the Federal Government, and exhaust their patriotism and labor in measuses of mere speciality and favor for the negro.

We seek to avoid such analomies of legislation in both our Federal and State governments.— Their tendency is neither toward humanity nor merey. They benefit neither the white nor black race and, whether well meant or ill meant, result in that spirit of strife and uncharitableness in different States and among different classes of people which the true men of the country cannot fail to deplore.

Higher aims and nobler objects animate the American party. We know of no political differences between the rights of the North and the rights of the South. All are subordinate to the constitution of our common country. The union of the States, the rights of the States, the privileges of the people in the States, and under the Union, is our chief glory and our greatest good. When differences of opinion come, as come they will, they must be settled, not by crimination and hate, but by reference to that great principle of common right and common protection—THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES; and if there shall fortunately again be dfferences of opinion as to what is granted and what is denied by the constitution, the judiciary of the land, through the anthorized courts of the nation, can alone make up and decide the final issue. The constitution and the law must, therefore, at all times and in all places become our rule of action.

Toleration of opinion, the freedom of speech and of the press, the right of the people peaceably to assemble and petition the government for a redress of grievances, are among these specified constitutional personal rights, and cannot be abridged except as the obuse of these privleges is restrained by the laws of the land. Equally ex-plicit are the rights of the States over their own territories, and interference with them becomes both a public abuse of power and an act of per-sonal impertinence. If all men in all sections of the country, could realize where their powers ommeuce, and where they cease-if they could nderstand that they are no more responsible for other men's sins than they are secure in their own self assumed virtues, all would be comparatively

There are many and vitai questions upon which the American party can agree, and to these all other subjects should be subordinate. They are, u brief, condensed in the following spirit of National Platform. We hold, for example, as cardinal maxims of public justice and private duty, to the following rule of faith and action:

1st. The Federal Union must be maintain

2d. The reserved rights of the States must be 3d. The decisions of the Supreme Court must

4th. The union of Church and State must be 5th The rights of conseignee must be guaran-

American interests must be promoted. 7th. An American untionality must be eherish

8th. Sectional agitation must be terminated. 9th. Foreign paupers and criminals must be ex-10th. The naturalization laws must be amend

11th. "Squatter Sovereignty" and alien suff-

age must be repudiated.
12th. Americans must rule America. There is nothing here not taught in the Consti-ution of the United States, and nothing here re-organant to the spirit and letter of that instrument of liberty and law. The provision of the Consti-ution which requires the President of the United States to be a native born citizen—which requires the Vice President to possess the same qualifica-tions with the President—which, in the foreign born imposes a nine years' residence, after na because of one or many defeats.

The nine hundred thousand American voters who sustained the American candidates for the two first offices in the gift of the people in No vember last may eujoy the consciousness of an honest work well meant and well done. They neither counted the cost of defeat nor faltered in the discharge of a great public duty, and had the thousands of men who agreed with them in opinion as to the justice of their principles and the fitness of their candidate acted upon the same convictions of public duty, the result would have and hearty obedience to its provisious. It is, above and beyond all other records of political ereeds, the platform of the American party.

But we cannot shut our eyes to other issues which have been forced upon us by the Democratic party, which is not only not what it was in times ast, but which seems to have outlived its con istency, its usefulness, and its virtues. It has different faces for different parts of the country and different phases to illustrate its many creeds It has involved the government in great difficulty and no man feels secure in the future while this party is in power. Uunder Democratic Admiuis trations there has been an open violation of law in the Territory of Utah. A social system which would have disgraced the darkest ages, utterly re pugnant to civilization, reflecting the highest dis thonor upon the government, a festering sore upon the political body, and every day growing from bad to worse, exists and has existed for four years past within the borders of our own government. We condemn this outrage upon morals and humanity, and desire to see the nuisaned abated We trace it, however, as one of the nat-ural ills incident to that system of administration which seeks to fill the nation with criminals, pau pers, and fanatics from the old world. We trace the great majority of wrongs in Utah, the act of treason, the eases of arson, the multitudes of murders, the cruel banishments, the beastly intercourse, to that unnatural indifference to those who, serpent like, have crept into the bosom of the nation in order to sting and destroy it. Other questions of great importance though of less magnitude also attract our attention. The public domain, secured by a common treasure and a common sacrifice of blood and labor, the common property of the nation is distributed without regard to the general ownership, and with a lav-ishness of appropriation which shows an utter inlifference to the just claims and true wants of the American people. Who can arrest these evils and restore the gov ernment to its aucient landmarks but the Amer ican party? Where else is there a sure liope of the union of the States with that free expression of opinion which belongs to every Common-

We eall then upon our countrymen all over the land to organize and act. Let them seek to give honor, strength, prosperity, and perpetuity to our glorious Union by making the love of country and of the whole country a passion and a orinciple. The past in our nation is made glorious by the patriotism and heroism of our noble ancestry of Southern men of the stamp and character of him who led the great armies of the Revolution, and of those who were distinguished under the confederation and in the convention which framed the onstitution. Northern men, too, of the stamp and character of the son of Massachusetts who nomi-nated George Washington of Virginia to be General-in-Chief of the armies of the Republic, and like him received the sword of the leading British General on Southern soil at the instance of the forever-loved, Heaven protected Father of our ommon country.

Living then in these great examples of the past—seeking to re-baptise the whole nation in the spirit of the great and good men who led the way to victory, and to independence, we, too, are hopeful and heartful of the great fu-

We invoke the sympathy, the aid, the co-ope ration of all men, all over the land, who are with abuses in the State and nation which have result ed in so much personal wrong, and left a stain like a wound upon the fair frame of the Republic. Americans and friends of Americans, North and South, East and West, "Awake, arise, or be forever fallen."

At a large and respectable meeting of the citi zens of Jeffersonville, Ind., held at the market house, on the evening of the 14th inst., B. C. Pile was called to the Chair, and John W. Ray was appointed Secretary.

Dr. N. Field, from the Committee on Reso lutions, reported the following which were adopt

WHEREAS. The citizens of Jeffersonville have after years of patient and persevering effort, succeeded in establishing for themselves a Bank with an excellent charter, and with adequate ability to promote her various interests; and whereas, our Banks have thus far answered our expectations, and bas pursued towards our business men a liberal policy. It has extended aid to the mer cantile, commercial and manufacturing business of the city, and if encouraged and sustained, will be a blessing to all classes of our population. We regard it as an institution of vital importance to the enterprise and future prosperity of our city and by means of the facilities which it will affor to our people, a staple and permanent trade will ere long be built up at this point, and Jefferson-ville become a place of importance; and whereas we bave implicit confidence in the solvency o our bank, as well as in the prudence and integrity of its officers; that its affairs have been and will continue to be managed with strict regard to its obligations to the community; and whereas, the success and prosperity of the Bauk is indentified with our own, so much so, that one cannot suffer witbout the other; and whereas, we can see no necessity for the continual demand upou the bank for coin, as it must be apparent to every well informed mind, that the state of our foreign ex changes no longer require the exportation of the precious metals, or the continuance of the present monetary panic; and whereas, we believe that were it not for brokers and panic makers who infest ou commercial cities, and whose occupation is to depreciate the credit of banks, and speculate in their paper, that confidence would soon be restored and all branches of business revive. Therefore

Resolved That the people of Jeffersonville fee themselves, constrained by a sense of duty-by the law of necessity and self-preservation, to adopt some measure for the protection of our bank against a class of men who would sacrifice our business in order to gratify their cupidity, and satiate their thirst for gain.

Resolved, That we view with abhorrence and detestation that class of men, the assorting brokers, who, as a general thing, are a curse, and a nuisance in the financial world. We regard them as a set of heartless vampires, without conscience or shame, governed by no principle but selfishness, and influenced by no feeling but avarice, and who, for the sake of the paltry per cent from the sale of coin, would prostrate all credit and ruin the commerce of the country.

Resolved, That their course towards the bank at Jeffersonville, is ungenerous and mean, prompt ed solely by the love of gain and not the laws of It is with them a mere matter of specu lation founded upon no just necessity or mercan tile convenience. I hey abstract coin from ou bank for the purpose of taking advantage of the panic which they themselves create, and by means of which they are enabled to buy from the panic stricken country, the paper of banks which they have discredited

On motion of Captain Armstrong, it was-Resolved, As the sense of this meeting, that we condemn the course of any of our eitizens who act as the agents of the assorting brokers. On motion, the meeting adjourned.

B. C. PILE, Chairman.

JOHN W. RAY, Secretary.

Note--It is not true as reported that the officers of the bank had any agency in getting up or conducting the meeting.

Fillibuster Walker and his Deaf Mute Inamorata.

The following statement is from a recent book of travels, by an Englishman:

"I came down the Mississippi with a gentleman from Nashville, who had been at school with Gen. Walker, and who confirmed, in the strongest manner, the accounts of his reserve at school.— Iudeed, he said Walker was the puniest, quietest milksop of a boy he had ever known; so much so as to be an object of derision to his school-fellows, who called him 'honey,' 'missy,' and other similar contemptuous names. Walker never joined the other boys in any athletic games, the only thing by which he distinguished himself was, that he always knew his lessons better than any other boy in school, and the moment school was over he ran home to his mother. In his ure moments his favorite pass time was reading ville. the Bible.

"Walker first of all studied divinity, and it was probably only in consequence of the doubts and perplexities that so often disturb the studies of our young theologians, that he abandoned the study for medicine. This, too, he gave up for some reason, after a time, and took to law, which as you know, is in this country, often synony mous to politics. In New Orleans he connected himself with the press; but here, in addition to law and physic he had an episode of love, which, though not mentioned in the public account of his career had, I believe, a great effect on his fortunes and character, and the story of which I had from a source in which I can put every confidence. At New Orleans he became acquainted with a young girl, very beautiful and intelligent, but deaf and dumb.

"Walker was first attracted to this young lady by sympathy for her melancholy privation, but tenderer feeling soon arose, and on her part the ng lady became passionately attached to Walker. Indeed, not being aware of the usual restraints which the conventionalities of society impose on females under such circumstauces, she displayed her affection in a more open manner than was pleasing to her friends. This led to some restraint and misunderstanding and estrange-ment, and the poor, beautiful, but speechless girl, thinking herself deserted, sickened and died.— From that time, Walker was a changed man. He went to California, fought a duel, and then joined a band of desperadoes. Thenceforth the sickly studious milksop, was the stern and daring ad

A SIGN OF THE TIMES-PERRAGES DECLINED .-It was lately announced that Lord Palmerston intended to raise the Marquis of Lansdowne to the rank of Duke of Kerry, and to confer peerages on Mr. Macaulay; Lord Robert Grosvenor., M. P. for Middlesex, and brother of the Marquis of Westminster; Mr. C. C. Cavendish, M. P. for Buckinghamshire, brother of the Earl of Burlington, and cousin of the Duke of Devanshire; and Lord Harry George Vane, M. P. for South Durham, and brother of the Duke of Cleve-

The general desire to enter the British peerage, or to gain a step in it, is known to all who know anything of England. But, of late years, the House of Lords has really so little shown strong sympathy with the country, that an impres the reverse, friendly to it, has been made Mr. Macaulay and Lord Robert Grosvenor have accepted the proffered honors, and have been duly gazetted as Peers of the Realm. Mr. Cavendish and Lord Harry Vane, evidently consider ing it a doubtful honor, have resolved to follow the late Sir Robert Peel's example, and refuse to be made Lords. The old Marquis of Lansdowne, now in his 77th year, has declined a Dukedom There is something very suggestive in this— the British Peerage held so lightly, that pub-lic men refuse to belong to it.—Philadelphia

SETTLEMENT OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN QUES TION-Orders against Fillibusters .- The following is a special dispatch to the New York Courier and Enquirer:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12. The Central American questions are all settled. The de facto government of Nicaragua is recognized, and Mr. Irissarri is to be received as min ister. The form and details of a treaty with Nicaragua have heen adopted, recognizing charter and contract of the old American Canal Company of the 22d of September, 1849, as amended 27th of July, 1857, providing for the re-establishment of the transit line, and the restoration of the company's rights. The treaty was unanimously agreed to by the cabinet on Friday last, as also the recognition of the new Nicara-guan Government and the reception of its minister. Orders have been issued to the commander of the gulf squadron to arrest fillibustering expeditions wherever found, and Lord Napier has ordered Capt Erskine, commanding the British squadron, to capture all fillibusters, should they escape our squadron, and deliver them to the American commander. The course of the Ad-The course of the Administration in the whole matter has been prompt vigorous, and statesmanlike.

INSPECTOR.

ARRIVAL OF GOLD COIN .- Over one hundred and twenty thousand dollars in gold coin arrived in the city yesterday by two steamboats. The J. E. Woodruff from New Orleans had $22,500 of the precious metal in American coiu, in one lot. In the evening the steamer J. II. Oglesby arrived from the Missouri river having among her passengers a company of Santa Fe merchants and traders-also several merchants belonging various Missouri river towns-all of whom had more or less gold eoin in their possession The whole amount of specie hrought by the Oglesby's passengers exceeded $100,000, which will be handed over to St. Louis merchants in the due course of trade in the purchase of wir ter stocks of goods, and in the payment of old

This money could not have come in a better time, or be used for a better purpose. It will have a beneficial influence in the mercantile transactions of the next few days which will be sensi bly felt in the sphere of finance. A steamboat freighted with gold metal would not come amiss just now in our city, and one boat per day with such a freight as that of the Oglesby would soon increase our floating capital amazingly .- St. Louis

A new reading has been found for the oft-quoted and beautiful saying, "There's a divinity that shapes our ends, rough-hew them how we will." A miserable friend of ours, who finds that every thing goes wrong, and nothing turns up to suit him, says that in his copy of the bard of Avon it reads: "There's a divinity that shapes only one pound. That Cross wasn't hard to hear.

If there is any one who requires convincing evidence of the rascally game the assorting houses are playing towards the people and the official copy of the appointments of preachers Kentucky banks, he has but to read the subjoined letter to the St. Louis Republican. The brokers are endeavoring to create the impression that our banks are insolvent, in order that they may swindle the credulous into taking much less than the par value of their notes In this way, too, they increase the run upon the banks, by exciting terror in the minds of those who, were it not for the brokers, would have no apprehensions.

> Specie and Currency. Mr. EDITOR: I have been much surprise with in the last few days, to see that many of our citi-zens are permitting themselves to be shaved heav ily on the notes of the Kentucky banks-as goo specie-paying banks as there are in the United States—and situated almost at our doors. It is certainly well known to all the mercantile and readg community, that there are no safer or more reliable set of specie-paying banks in the Union than those of Kentucky, and yet we see that the croaking specie brokers and note shavers are ocbuying the notes at five, and I am informed, as high as seven per cent. discount. I was respectably informed a few days since, that there were parties traveling through the State of Indiaua about ten days ago, buying up Kentucky bank notes—one of the party going ahead reporting certain banks as broken, and his conederate following one day in the rear, with the gold, purchasing at a heavy discount. Such is, probably, the course now being pursued in this city, to the great prejudice of the community, SAM'L TCHOR, and especially to the manufacturing and laboring M. A. TUTTLE.

We must have a good eurrency from some quarter, in which the people can have confidence, as a money representative; and if such currency as that of the Kentucky bank notes is actually driven out from amongst us by the stratagem of specie brokers and bank note shavers, when will the bottom of the present difficulties be reach-

One to one and a half per cent. between Kentucky money and specie is certainly as much as auy business man should willingly submit to. ST. LOUIS.

II It is the fashion with some persons—senti mental young ladies who cry over the last uew novel, and young gentlemen in turn down collars who read Byron extensively—to exaggerate mental woes, speaking of the ills that flesh is held to, and to sneer at hodily sufferings as of no ac count. Having tried some specimens of both we have been pondering on the matter, and have come to the conclusion that there is preciou little choice between them. They are like th two roads to the same place, of which the sharp witted chap said that, take which you please, you would wish that you had gone the other way.— At any rate, arithmetically speaking, it must be: tolerably-sized grief which produces as much pair as a prolonged, stinging toothache; and eight-and forty hours without food must be about as hard to bear as the pangs of unrequitted love, or the 'proud man's contumely.' If you think these physical pains mere flea bites, try the vice-like grips of the rheumatism about six months, or shake with 'the ager' a few weeks, and you'l come to your senses on this subject.

UNLUCKY .- The captain of a steamboat recent y completed at this place, when upon leaving the city with his fine eraft, expecting to be for several months, gave his wife a considerable sum of money in bank bills, necessary for her support until he should return. When the boat was about to shove out from the landing the cap tain's wife and other ladies took their station o the bridge to see the sh mer off. Seeing he husband on deck, the late we from her pocket a white handkerchief, a threw all the bank bills, the were loose in the same pocket, into the river. Efforts were immediately made to reach the money, but withou success, and the captain continued on his way down stream, little knowing the ill-luck which had at tended the farewell token from his wife. The news from New York and New Orleans is decidedly more favorable. From a New Orleans dispatch to one of the Louisville papers, received at a late hour on Friday night, we learn that the old Banks of that city had weathered the storm bravely; the run upon them had ceased, confidence was returning, and the suspended Banks antici pated a speedy resumption. If they continue to hold out, and the news from New York continues as favorable as it now is, the Kentucky Banks will not suspend, as there certainly will be no necessity for their doing so. It would appear from the following article from the New York Journal of Commerce, that the West will be flood. ed with the notes of the suspended Banks of that State in the purchase of produce, but, as the West is indebted to the East, and the latter agrees to receive the same money, eancelling our debts, there can be no serious objections to receiving

The banks of this city, with one or two excep tions, opened for business as usual, receiving bank notes and certified checks on deposit, an in payment, and paying in the same, the only difference being that specie was not issued. was no excitement at any of the banks of discount, as far as we can ascertain, and no demand for specie either from bill holders or depositors. The American Exchange and Metropolitan Banks have promptly adopted a system which will afford immediate relief to the community. They have opened an uncurrent department, in a measure independent of their regular banking department, where they will receive the bills of all free banks in this State, (the same being fully secure deposit with the comptroller) and of such safety fund banks as they may designate, credit-ing the amount at once to the depositor, and allowing him to draw against it, payable in the same currency. This varies from the former uncurrent money system in the following important particulars: Under the old system, these bills were received on deposit, paid the next day in specie or its equivalent, and sent home for redemption. Now they will be kept here and paid out again, relieving the country banks at once, and enabling them to expand with only such limi tation as a deposit of securities with the comptrol ler may prescribe. It will enable country mer chants to make remittances, because they can for-York exchange. It will solve the question of forwarding the produce from the interior. The West will now be alive with the issues of New York State money, which will be paid out for produce, setting all the wheels in motion, and ultimately finding its way to this city, where it will be received on deposit as above noticed. In a few days the business of this city will all be done with this currency, iu addition to the use of certi fied checks.

The New York Commercial Advertiser, o Wednesday evening, says:

Wall street this morning presents a strang-contrast to yesterday. There are no excited crowds in the street thronging the thoroughfare from end to end; no groups of spectators perch-ed upon every position presenting a facility for overlooking the operations; no long lines of anx ious note holders and depositors, checks in hand fighting their way into the entrances of the banks A perfect calm seems to have succeeded the rm, and the street scarcely presents the appearance of even its ordinary bustle.

The banks opened at the usual hour this morning, and conducted their business as usual, except that the response to an occasional inquiry was "we are not paying out specie." We visited most of those in Wall street in the course of the morning, and found only a few customers in scarcely as many we think as is custom ary at the same hour. On most of the doors, and on the newspaper bulletine, the following notice is posted: "The business of the banks will be transacted exactly as heretofore, with the exception of paying specie. Checks will be received on deposit and in the payment of notes, and bank notes will be paid and received as usual.

At the clearing house this morning the ex-changes and operations are going as usual, but there is some difficulty in arranging the settlements arising out of yesterday's transactions. A large number of the bank officers were there at noon, in consultation. It is understood that the banks will make their returns daily there as heretofore, and payment of the balances will continue to be made in specie.

Our readers are, no doubt, aware that by the constitution of the State of New York the Legislature is prohibited from legalizing suspension by insolvent banks, and the opinion has been formed almost universally throughout the country that those banks in that State which have temporarily suspended specie payment to their creditors have forfeited their charters, and will not be able to resume their operations even after they have collected their resources, and, consepossession of their officers, and be placed in the custody of, and be administered upon, by the State officers. From the decision of the Supreme Courts of New York this idea, which has greatly assisted in creating the panic existing in the constry, fortunately turns out to be incorrect This is decidedly the best news we have yet re. ceived from the East. The following is the de cision referred to:

At a meeting of the justices of the Suprem Court, held for the purposes of determining a uni-form course of action among themselves—present -Justices Strong, Emott, Birdseye, Mitchell Roosevelt, Davies, Clerke, and Peabody-the following opinions were unanimously concurred in:

In all cases in which the act of 1849 is applicable, it is deemed to supersede the provisions of the Revised Statutes (2 R. S. 464, sections 47 and 39,) accordingly no creditor of a bank who may have relief under that act, can have it under the Revised Statutes. That act give the creditor a right to apply to the justice of the Supreme Court only after the expiration of ten days from the refusal of a bank to pay its debts or liabilities.

Even then a temporary and immediate injunc-tion can be granted, only if in the opinion of the judges it be expedient in order to prevent fraud or injustice. After both parties shall be heard before the judge he is to determine whether the bank is clearly solvent or not.

A bank is clearly solvent which is clearly able to pay all its debts, although it may have sus-pended specie payments for a time. In the case of the North American Trust and Banking Co., this principle was held by the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals. When a bank is clearly solvent and its officers are acting in good faith, no receiver should be appointed. Where the act of 1849 does not apply, if the part of the Revised Statutes, above referred to, does not apply, it is discovered to the control of the receiver actions are the statutes. cretionary in the Supreme Court to grant an injunction or not. That discretion is controlled by legal rules, and the injunction should never be granted if the bank is clearly solvent. An ex parte

Before Judge Davies-the Banks-On Tuesday ternoon an order was granted to show cause why receivers should not be appointed on the property of the Marine and Citizen's Banks.— Counsel for the banks that day applied to the Court to vacate the order on the ground that these anks would continue their business. The Court vacated the order.

The suspension of the Bank of the State of South Carolina has been confirmed. The Charleston News, of Saturday evening (10th inst.) says:

This banking institution of the State was com pelled by unavoidable circumstances to suspend this forenoon. A good deal of excitement on the announcement of the fact, pervades our commu-There is, however, no just cause of panic —such a panic as will induce an unnecessary run on the other banks. The liberality of this bank in accommodating the people, when neither funds nor currency could be obtained from other quarters, had so extended its discount and circulation lines that when the other banking institutions, in isting on constant discharges of balances in spe cie between them-an uuwise and incougruous neasure at this erisis—made a press upon it, its ispension became inevitable.

The noteholders and depositors need not, how ever, apprehend any loss. unless in their panic they choose to sacrince their securities. Little, Alden & Co., have not suspended, and ask au extension only in behalf of several mills for which they are agents. The bank directors and leading merchants held another meeting to-day and discussed the propriety of an extension of money facilities. Messrs. Nathan and Wm. Appleton advocated the policy of increasing the loans by an addition of $13. 000,000. The bank officers expressed an earnes desire to afford all relief possible to the business community. The meeting then adjourned till to morrow.

Money matters elosed with a more favorable aspect under the advices from New York. The merchants and bankers look more cheerful.

IT It appears from criminal statistics in England that of 2,358 prisoners in the Surrey jail, only 350 were married, and these had an average f less than three children each, showi the humanizing tendency of the marriage rela tion, also that its responsibilities deter, far more than its burdens and difficulties provoke the criminal inclinations of the middle classes.

AMERICANS IN CALCUTTA .- There were in August last about eight hundred Americans residing in Calcutta, and in this number were included many women and children. There was a good deal of anxiety among all classes of the inhabitants, and the Americans were thinking of send ing their women and children home by the ship Daniel Webster, which was in port, loading for Boston.

Mr. B. F. Hibler passed through town, the other day, with one of the finest fat bullocks we have ever seen. He purchased him in Boone county and exhibited him at the Florence fair where he received the premium over the splendid quently, their effects would be taken out of the bullock of Mr. C. T. Garrard which took the prize at our fair. The animal is five years old and weighs 2,715 pounds.

Mr. Hibler intends to have him, with a number of others, in New York about Christmas.

ADVICE-As the hot season is approaching, every person should prepare their system for the change, and there is no remedy so applicable as McLeans Strengthening Cordial and Blood Pu rifier." It will purify the blood thoroughly, and at the same time strengthen and invigorate the whole organization. The immense quantity of it that is sold daily, is proof enough of its great virtues in thoroughly removing all impure matter from the blood. We say to all try lt! It is delicious to take. Something to Do .- Mr. Almon Peabody, a well known denizen of Bangor, Me., complained of "nothing to do," and no pay for it. He offered to do anything for a quid pro quo. Mr. David Tenny took him at his word, and hired him at $1 a day for three days, to march from Granite Block on East Market square, to Dodge's Hotel, in regimentals, which he was furnished, and was seen performing his task with plume waving and gun at shoulder arms.

Making a Fortune .- At least one branch of business is thriving despite the hard times. W. R. Foster, of Bangor, the inventor and manufacturer of a little instrument for sharpening pencils, has just closed a contract for manufacturing $100,000 worth of the article. This is a pretty large operation in a small line of manufacture .-Mr. Foster has hither kept forty hands constantly
